Our website QA review is about

Assuring the Quality of your website.

- v This QA service is a very good tool for many of the do-it-yourself website builders out there.
  - o Often when we are focused on the details of web development, it is difficult to step back and look at the bigger picture.
  - o This is where the RazSEO Website QA review comes in handy.
  - o We will review your website in detail;
    - § page by page detail as to the errors, deficiencies, and/or peculiarities in your website.
    - § We report things like:

- broken links,

  - spelling and structural mistakes,

  - Search Engine Optimization status,

  - competitor comparisons,

  - Alexa ranking,

  - and others.
- o An external QA review is often the best way to catch defects in a site.

The external person's lack of familiarity with the site makes it easy for him or her to spot defects that those more familiar with the site may over look.

- o We also provide alternative suggestions for anything that we have noted as a peculiarity.
- v The RazSEO QA Review is also a very good tool for corporate developed website;
- o Often developers gets so focused on their own individual tasks that sometimes issues related to connectivity, or creating a consistent feel on all pages of a website get overlooked.
